1 I saw the above mentioned person before me and told him: I, a police officer, Yitzhak Ya'akoboff,
 2 Badge No. 100835-8, inform you that you are suspected of membership and activity in a hostile
 3 organization, possession of weapons, of the murder of a number of people, of attempted murder of a
 4 number of people and of activity against the security of the Area. You do not have to say anything,
 5 but anything you say will be taken down by me and may serve as proof against you.
 6 The suspect refuses to sign Yitzhak Ya'akoboff
 7 After I read out and translated the content above to the above mentioned individual, he said to me as 8 follows:-
 9 Question - Have you understood the suspicions against you?
 10 Answer - Yes I have understood
 11 Question - In your previous statement, you told the police on April 16, 2002, you said that you had 12 bought a new model white Mazda automobile with yellow license plates. You said that it was a 13 stolen vehicle. I ask you what did you buy this automobile for, in other words a stolen vehicle with 14 yellow license plates?
 15 Answer - I bought this vehicle so that it would be possible to travel with it on roads on which Jews
 16 travel and so that it would be possible to carry out shooting attacks while overtaking the vehicles.
 17 Question - Tell me about the suicide bomber that [redacted] discussed with you.
 18 Answer - A few days after [redacted] about 28 years old, was released from the Preventive
 19 Security prison in Bitunia, [redacted] about 30 years old, a resident of Balata Refugee Camp,
 20 called me. [redacted] told me that [redacted] had been released from the Preventive Security
 21 prison and asked me to meet with [redacted] I agreed and [redacted] gave [redacted] my 22 mobile phone number and afterward [redacted] called me and we met in central Ramallah. In that 23 meeting, [redacted] told me that he had a suicide bomber for whom he wanted an explosive belt. I
 24 agreed and I took [redacted] to [redacted] about 29 years old, hailing from Jenin, a worker of 25 Force 17 in Ramallah, and he gave [redacted] an explosive belt. After that, [redacted] took the 26 suicide bomber to an apartment that I had rented in downtown Ramallah opposite the fuel station
 27 next to the Arab Bank. I rented this apartment in October 2001 and I lived in that apartment for about 28 six months.

1 Question – What did they take the suicide bomber to your apartment in downtown Ramallah for?
 2 Answer – In order to put the explosive belt on him. A man called [REDACTED] who works for Force 17 in 3 Ramallah, put the explosive belt onto him and explained to him how to activate the explosive belt.
 4 Question – Did this suicide bomber depart to carry out an attack?
 5 Answer – Yes, he departed for an attack but that night [REDACTED] called me and told me that the suicide
 6 bomber had been killed by IDF soldiers in the Beit Hanina area when he was on his way to a suicide
 7 attack.
 8 About a week later, [REDACTED] called me and asked me for NIS 10,000 for the military activity. On 9 the following day I met with [REDACTED] at Café Al Rum, which belongs to Jihad Al Rum, age 25, a
 10 resident of Kadura [?] Refugee Camp. In that meeting I gave [REDACTED] NIS 8,000, and on that 11 evening [REDACTED] called me and told me that he was buying explosives with that money.
 12 Question: To whom did the money that you gave to [REDACTED] for the explosives belong, i.e. from 13 whom did you take the NIS 8,000?
 14 Answer – [REDACTED] who works with us at the Tanzim office in Ramallah gave me this money.
 15 Question – Did [REDACTED] buy explosives?
 16 Answer – He bought chemicals and after that, together with [REDACTED] [REDACTED] and 17 [REDACTED] they prepared a large explosive device in the aluminum factory that belongs to 18 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] did not know that they were making an explosive device there.
 19 Question – To where did they take this explosive device?
 20 Answer – I don't know.
 21 On the day on which [REDACTED] and Abdallah Barghouti were released from the Preventive
 22 Security prison in Bitunia, before their release, [REDACTED] called [REDACTED] and informed
 23 him that they were releasing [REDACTED] and Abdallah Barghouti. After that I traveled with 24 [REDACTED] to the Preventive Security office in Bitunia, from which we took [REDACTED]
 25 and Abdallah Barghouti, and we took them to the rented apartment in downtown Ramallah. After 26 that, [REDACTED] left and I stayed with them.

1 After that, [REDACTED] returned to the apartment and stayed to sleep with them that night.
 2 After they announced in the news that an explosive belt had been found in an ambulance and that
 3 [REDACTED] was responsible for this matter, I called [REDACTED], and he told me that he was 4 responsible for this explosive belt and for the suicide bomber, and that he had sent the suicide
 5 bomber and the explosive belt to a man from Ramallah.
 6 Question – I am showing you handwriting in Arabic (in total one white page). Is this your 7 handwriting?
 8 Answer – Yes, this is my handwriting.
 9 (I seized the handwriting and marked it with initials Y.Y. and the date April 21, 2002).
 10 Question – Do you have anything to add?
 11 Answer – Yes, I do not regret anything that I have done, and if I leave her I shall continue my 12 activity, i.e. continue attacks against [REDACTED]
 13 This is my statement that was read out before me and translated into Arabic and confirmed as correct 14 by my signature.
